FATAL NATURAL GAS EXPLOSION

House Wrecked and Twenty-five Persons Injured as Result of Gas Leaking from Stove.

Two of the Occupants of the (H) Elder Building Were Blown From Their Beds Through the Roof and Were Fatally Injured.

Pittsburg.—About twenty-five persons were injured, two fatally, and a dwelling house was torn to pieces, when an explosion of natural gas occurred in a house located at 102 1/2th street, this city, on Friday. In the fire which followed two persons were severely burned.

The fatality involved: Mrs. Sarah Grossman, blown through the roof, seriously injured. Three members of the Grossman family, Edgar, Robert, and a guest of the Grossmans.

About fourteen other persons in the neighborhood received injuries when windows in their homes were shattered by the explosion and plaster fell upon them.

Although the fire had been looking from a kitchen stove at night. Early Friday when a match was struck in the lower portion of the house to light the stove there was a terrific explosion. The house was torn to pieces.

The roof was blown high into the air and the front and rear of the dwelling collapsed. Mrs. Grossman and her three children were blown from their beds through the roof and were fatally injured.

Other members of the families which occupied the house were thrown from bed by the explosion and severely injured. Mr. Grossman, who struck the match, escaped with a severe bruise on his head, but was not fatally injured. Occupants in adjoining houses were injured and for a time the entire neighborhood was panic-stricken.
